

Immanuel Lutheran Church has an online calendar for you !

The Master Calendar includes the Church, Gym & some LLS School Events all on one calendar to eliminate confusion.

(the church office will still have the individual gym & church meetings calendar)

If you need add information to the calendar, please let me know and the event will be added.

How to Navigate Gmail Calendar:

You can view Calendar by week, or month (to right corner) Next to Print Button.

To view an event, click on the event title and you will be able to view larger and print individual event details.

The left hand corner will allow you to change the month or view a day.

For those of you who are viewing it in your Gmail/Email Account, the 'Calendar' button is on the top of your page, next to Gmail. Then Simply double click on the calendar called "Master Calendar of Immanuel Lutheran Church".

You can also view by day, week, or month, and print as well. To view details, click event title and the detail will appear.
