What's Your Destination?

Maybe you can relate to the story of, whilst being in a mad rush, you dash out of your house, to pick up that One Important Thing. On the way, you get pulled over for speeding, realize you left your coffee on the roof of your car upon seeing the stain running down the rear window, and recall that you left the oven on. Oh, and then you get there, you've completely forgotten what exactly is that One Important Thing.

Have you ever rushed to get somewhere, and it gets you in trouble? Have you ever forgotten where you are going in the first place (and hopefully you're dressed appropriately!)

Some years back, there was a popular saying that went something like, "It's all about the journey" or "life is a journey". Usually, the word dude followed. Well, that's great, but I think the destination counts for something too. If the Forty Days of Lent reminds us of what we should pack and purge in life – and to pick up our crosses - then the Fifty Days of Easter remind us that the destination also counts for something. That One Important Thing is Resurrection – New Life in the Risen Lord – New Life in the Spirit. And New Life begins NOW by grace through faith to be sent with hope and charity to the world. Your present destination does matter, so get the Word out by living the Life.

During the Fifty Days, we will hear Bible readings that remind us that the destination matters. Places like the Empty Tomb to the Mount of Olives to the Upper Room and beyond remind us that God's work for us is only just begun. God will send His people out with the message that the Promise was fulfilled, that Jesus defeated sin and death and that eternal life is promised for His people. Again – this begins now with the foretaste that comes alive by living the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

So, don't rush. Slow and steady wins the race. The destination does matter. And as we travel abroad through the readings of Scripture, don't forget to bring God's passport of grace.

PASSPORTS

Speaking of passports, during the 50 Days of Easter, there will be "Passports" available each Sunday for children 6th grade on down to those learning to read and write. On each Passport will be a time to reflect on our worship. At the end of each service, Pastor will stamp each Passport. Please save all of your passports – and bring them all back on Pentecost Sunday (May 19 – there will be two services – 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. with the Rite of Confirmation). Whoever has the most passports – wins a prize – to be announced on Trinity Sunday.

Postern of the Pastor

SPECIAL EASTER SEASON WORSHIP

Service of the Word and Youth & Family

Immanuel offers special services in Advent and Lent – which tend to be more reflective or somber. Well, why not Easter? Immanuel will host a simple Service of the Word – with joyful hymns and music of the season that reminds us of our Christian hope. Consider joining us Wednesday, April 24 at 3:30 p.m.

After worship (4:30ish), Youth and Family will host an interactive meal in the church basement—with youth helping prep, make, and set for a meal! Stay tuned.

PASTOR'S STUDY IN APRIL

Luther's Last Will and Testament

The Pastor's Study will resume on April 9th at 10 a.m. The topic will center on study guide developed by Pr. Steven E. King (no, this isn't The Shining!) around Luther's Last Will and Testament. It's called the Smalcard Articles, and it is one of our documents found in the Lutheran Confessions (or Book of Concord). Many of the early reformers feared that Luther was dying and asked that he write down his thoughts. And so, he did (although Luther did go on to live a bit longer). If you cannot make it but would like a copy to follow along at home, please contact Pr. Repp.

PRAYERS REQUESTED:

Confirmation is coming! Please keep our candidates in prayer as they prepare for the Rite of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday, May 19 at 10 a.m.

Please pray for new members of our congregation to be introduced on Low Sunday, April 7th including Scott Kirchoff, Janel Frack, Donald McNaughton, Lee Cerk, and Rhonda Boyd.

Graying in Grace

Becoming Mature Disciples of Jesus Christ—Pastor Brad Hales

“It is written, O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds. So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come.”—Psalm 71:17-18

We're never too old to grow in our relationship with the Lord and share the “Good News” of Jesus Christ, are we? Aging is a part of life, and the psalmist reminds us that God will continue to walk with us and use us to grow Christ's Kingdom. And this is done by becoming disciples and making disciples for Jesus. The facts are clear. America is aging at a rapid rate. Daily, 10,000 people are turning 65 years of age. By 2060 almost 100 million people in the United States will be 60 years old or more. The fastest growing population within the older realm will be those individuals 85 years and above. And then there is the church. The church is already feeling the effects of the “age wave.” The average congregational member is in his or her 60s. When you walk into many of our parishes a “sea of gray” overwhelms the pews; the shouts and laughter of young children are seldom heard. Some would surmise this is the reason the church is declining. Some would suggest that simply hiring a youth director would attract young families with children. While a possibility, this is not realistic in the majority of our congregations. We simply need to change our way of thinking. Instead of looking negatively upon an aging church, we should begin to see the possibilities for evangelism, discipleship and renewal. As the general population grows older, why can't the church use this resource to grow “mature disciples” and bring about “vibrancy” within the life of the Body? This is the focus of our Bible study: Assisting older adults in clinging to the faithful promises of God, and “walking alongside” those who want to grow into “mature disciples.” Because as we grow into the discipleship of Jesus Christ, we will have several opportunities to disciple others. As it is written in Isaiah 46:3-4: “Listen to me, O house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been borne by me from before your birth, carried from the womb; even to your old age I am he, and to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.”

Ask the Pastor

Q: What do you think of The Chosen?

A: I've heard this one a lot, actually. As most know, we broadcast The Chosen in a discussion group a few times a month. The Chosen is a streamed drama, episodes varying around 45 minutes, featuring events in and around the life of Jesus of Nazareth. While this series follows the life of Jesus as found in the four canonical Gospels, it openly develops backstories with the various persons through artistic liberties. For example, the series involves the wife of the apostle Peter, although we have no record of this person (although we can deduce that Peter was, at one time, married).

A few things upfront. The series is not complete. The most current season was theatrically released. I have not seen every episode. The episodes that I have seen are very well produced and directed. Likewise, the casting and acting are excellent. These are often pitfalls with other biblical or Christian-themed shows. The Chosen is beautifully put together, with characters that are human and not cardboard.

It appears that the series has consulted various Christian and Jewish authorities for a sense of authenticity. I know many find the various portrayals of the biblical persons relatable and in different ways – making them come alive.

I am also aware that there is artistic license with this. Some of this modern relatability may be less authentic than what was found in First Century Judea. Liberties are taken to help modern audiences connect. As a fellow church worker and I discussed recently, one needs to beware of the differences between the Jesus of the Bible and the Jesus of The Chosen.

This can be said of other biblical dramatizations. At this point in the series, The Chosen might help lead or strengthen people's faith. But bear in mind – it can't replace the Bible or worship.

Pastor's Challenge

Briefly, April takes us through Deuteronomy and we begin and finish the Book of Joshua. The timing is impeccable. In the Book of Joshua, we read about the beginning of the conquest of Canaan as Moses' successor Joshua trusts in God's promise. This conquest of the "promised land" is not completed during his lifetime and will be continued in the next book of the Bible. Joshua renews God's covenant and is blessed with many victories.

As some may know, the name of Joshua ("the God Who saves") is Hebrew. In Greek, the name for Joshua is... Jesus, Who in this season of Easter, wins the ultimate victory over sin, death, and the devil. Yes, Jesus saves.

A note from the Principal

On behalf of the entire LLS Staff, Happy Easter! This year, Spring Break fell on Holy Week. Therefore, the week before Spring Break we put a special focus on the Easter story here at LLS. As I sat in chapel, walked the halls, and visited classrooms the week before Easter Break, I heard teachers sharing the stories of Holy Week and students curiously asking questions about the events leading up to Jesus' resurrection. As I listened to the teachers and students, I could sense slowness and calmness in each of the classrooms. Seeing the teachers take time to slow down to share and reflect on the Easter story reminded me of the importance of slowing down during this season. There is nothing more important than taking time to reflect, remember, and rejoice in the great gift of resurrection! I pray the blessing of the risen Savior fills you with joy throughout the Easter season!

Vision Screeners

Each year we provide our students with a free vision screening at LLS. We are looking for some volunteers who would be interested in taking over this vision screening for the 2024-2025 school year. You do not need a background in vision health care. All you need to do is complete a free vision screening training that is done online. If you would be interested in serving as a certified Vision Screener here at LLS please contact Hannah Walters for more information (hwalters@llsedu.org (920) 925-3791).

5th-8th Grade Invitational Dance

LLS will be hosting the "Enchanted Forest" 5th-8th grade invitational dance on Saturday, April 27th! Activities include Pizza Ranch pizza, EZ Promotion custom event t-shirts, a candy "bar," giveaways, and other fun. Dance is open to all 5th-8th grade congregational members!

Please register your student on our Eventbrite registration page here (cost is $10 per student): www.eventbrite.com/e/828318030527?aff=oddtcreator

Accreditation Donations

On April 11th - April 12th, LLS will be hosting a volunteer team of six area Lutheran School Principals, Pastors, and Teachers to validate our Accreditation through the National Lutheran School Accreditation Association. To showcase the talents and skills of our community and thank our validation team for their time, we would like to provide our validation team with Thank You baskets filled with goodies from YOU! We are looking for small items that showcase our amazing school and community! This could be food items, self-care items, gift cards, etc. If you have items you would like to donate, please contact Hannah Walters or Tammy Grady by calling the school office (920) 925-3791).
